An important message from...

The Data-Sitters Club

Have you ever needed a haircut so badly you could see it in the mirror, and you wanted to hug that version of you that wasn't totally shaggy?

You know, at least for now stores do still have scissors... and it probably won't be noticeable on zoom if you screw up...

We are not essential workers

“FOR THOSE WHO ARE FORTUNATE ENOUGH TO IMAGINE THAT THEIR CAREERS AND OTHER LIFE PROJECTS CAN BE MEANINGFULLY SHAPED BY THEIR OWN DESIRES, DEPRESSION IN THE FORM OF THWARTED AMBITION CAN BE THE FREQUENT FALLOUT OF THE DREAMS THAT ARE BRED BY CAPITALIST CULTURE” (17).

ANN CVETKOVICH, DEPRESSION: A PUBLIC FEELING

“THERE IS SOMETHING POWERFUL IN BEING WRONG, IN LOSING, IN FAILING, AND THAT ALL OUR FAILURES COMBINED MIGHT JUST BRING DOWN THE WINNER” (17).

JACK HALBERSTAM, THE QUEER ART OF FAILURE

PART 3: ACTIONS

1. PUBLIC VULNERABILITY

“FORMS OF TESTIMONY THAT CAN MEDIATE BETWEEN THE PERSONAL AND THE SOCIAL, THAT CAN EXPLAIN WHY WE LIVE IN A CULTURE WHOSE VIOLENCE TAKES THE FORM OF SYSTEMATICALLY MAKING US FEEL BAD.”

ANN CVETKOVICH, DEPRESSION: A PUBLIC FEELING

2. TRANSPARENCY

About this group

This group is for those who would like to share resources related to the academic job market (and, perhaps, the alt-ac market). It is a collegial, supportive community driven by hope and pragmatism.

The “site” is where we host blog posts about the job market and instructions on uploading materials. Sample application materials are hosted under “Docs”.
